Accountants and tax specialists Carol Sanchez and Maria Santiago, who were first featured in El Mundo and Revista Hispana (Channel 7-WHDH) back in March of 2005 for starting up the first Latina-owned tax firm in Massachusetts will be receiving a special national recognition at the next Hispanic-American Chamber of Commerce of Greater Boston networking event on Friday, October 20th. The event will take place at the Blue Cross Blue Shield of Massachusetts headquarters building at Landmark Center, near Fenway Park.

For the past 5 years Wells Fargo & Company, in partnership with LATINA Style Magazine and the United States Chamber of Commerce, recognizes 10 Latina entrepreneurs with the Anna Maria Arias Memorial Business Fund Awards, which provides each winner with a $5,000 cash grant and an award commemorating the life of Arias, the late founder of the publication and one of the foremost advocates for Latina empowerment and economic development.

For more information about the event, please feel free to email: events@hacc.com or call Ruby Ochoa at (617) 353-1114. Extended photos and coverage of this event in the October 26th edition of El Mundo Newspaper.
